Supplementing Branch Activities with a Focus on Younger Members

Date change! YMG Planning Meeting

The Planning Meeting is moved from Thursday, May 14 to Monday, May 18. It will still be held at 6pm at Siné Irish Pub downtown. If you plan to attend, please reply so I can be sure to get enough tables. If you can't come, but have some thoughts to share, feel free to reply to the sender.

At the Planning Meeting, we'll be discussing upcoming events for the group and looking for ways to promote younger member involvement within the branch. Whether you want to get involved or suggest a way for ASCE to serve you better, join us to share your ideas.

ASCE eCareerMentor

Now you can share your passion for civil engineering online with other ASCE members who want to share theirs with you. Whether you are a protégé looking for career advice from someone in your field...a highly experienced civil engineer ready to share knowledge and expertise... or a mid-career professional who has advice to offer and in need of some helpful advice of your own... ASCE eCareerMentor provides the online tools to match our members with others with common interests and specific expertise for maximum learning advantage. Sign up to be a Mentor or Protégé today - this may be a new beginning in your professional life as a civil engineer and ASCE member. Visit ASCE eCareerMentor at: <http://careers.asce.org/ementor>
