Virginia Section Planning Meeting

The Virginia Section planning meeting is scheduled for Friday, July 27 from 10 – 2 pm in Ashland Virginia. See the VA Section website for updates.

Virginia Section Annual Meeting & Installation of Officers

The Virginia Section annual dinner meeting and installation of officers for 2007-2008 is scheduled for Tuesday, September 18 in Williamsburg, VA. The annual dinner meeting is being held just prior to the Virginia Engineers Conference (VEC). See the VA Section website for updates.

VA Section President's Message

I hope that many of you are enjoying the beginning of the summer season. On behalf of the VA Section I would like to thank everyone who participated in the very successful ASCE Virginia Student Conference. I would like to thank everyone including Grant Pfeiffer, who headed up the event from the ASCE VMI Student Chapter; David Reidel, the co-chair at VMI; Tom Fitzgerald, 2nd Vice President of ASCE Virginia Section; and David Tillar, Practitioner Advisor to VMI from the Richmond Brand. A special thank you to VMI for hosting this year's event. The Virginia Student Conference 2008 will be held at West Virginia Tech with assistance from Fairmont State, and planning is already underway.

In this newsletter, please find information on the following: Professional Engineering Seal change that was effective February 1, 2007 and an update on the status on continuing education requirements.

The VA Section BOD sends a special note of thanks to all of members who are volunteering their time and talents on ASCE National committees. A listing of these for each branch is found at the end of this newsletter.

We currently are planning two major events for the next 6 months.

- Planning is underway for the Jamestown 2007 Middle School Engineering Summer Camp. I am heading up this event on behalf of the section.
- Planning is currently underway for the Virginia Engineers Conference. Our current President-Elect is heading up the conference for ASCE this year.

The ASCE VA Section and the Norfolk Branch are involved this year with planning celebrations in honor of Jamestown's anniversary. Various engineering societies are working together to celebrate Jamestown 400. The next major activity is Jamestown 2007 Middle School Engineering Summer camp: Over 200 middle school students registered for the student paper competition. This is extraordinary. We will select up to 30 of the best and brightest middle school students to attend the engineering camp. Please help to make this engineering camp a success by either volunteering your time and talents or helping to sponsor the Jamestown 400 engineering celebration by being a corporate sponsor. For additional information, see the website at <http://www.engineering2007.com/index.html>.

During the summer and fall, the calendar for 2007-2008 will be prepared. The next VA Section BOD meeting will be held on July 27, 2007 in Ashland. Carrie Langelotti has taken the lead on nominating committee for officers for the upcoming year. A ballot is included in this newsletter.

Update on VA Tech Activities – A telecom is scheduled between ASCE National, ASCE VA Section, and VA Tech to discuss activities towards the Memorial Fund at the college. As activities are scheduled they will be posted on the VA Section website.

Yours Truly,

Debra L. Brand, P.E., M.ASCE

Re: 501c6 Issue

May 23, 2007

Dear ASCE Colleague,

Over the past 18 months, ASCE leaders at the national, regional and local levels have engaged in discussions about the role of the Society in public policy. It seems clear that our members strongly support ASCE's efforts to advocate on behalf of the profession on public policy issues including Qualifications Based Selection, licensure, infrastructure and education. Our members also support ASCE's efforts to encourage civil engineers to engage in public policy decision-making at all levels of government.

In 2005, the Board appointed a Task Committee on Political Involvement to explore ways to expand our public policy activities. The Task Committee proposed the establishment of a 501(c) 6 organization that would eliminate current restrictions on our lobbying activity due to our current non-profit tax status. Such an organization would also permit future consideration of other political activities including endorsing candidates and establishing a political action committee (PAC). This proposal was considered by the Board at its April meeting, but failed to pass with the required vote.

Although this proposal was not approved, the debate it inspired within the ASCE membership heightened awareness of the importance of public policy to the civil engineering profession, and to the desired role of the Society in those activities. We will continue to examine ways to serve the interests of our members, and I welcome and appreciate your input.

An issue of more immediate concern for the Board is how we will address the cap on our current lobbying expenses. Under IRS rules, ASCE can select one of two options for determining the limit on its lobbying activities. Under one option ASCE is permitted to spend up to $1 million annually on lobbying expenses. ASCE has selected this option since 2005; however, based on a review prepared for the recent Board meeting, our proposed budget estimates lobbying expenses for FY2008 that exceed the $1 million cap. Under the second option, ASCE lobbying activities may not constitute a "substantial part" of our total activities. Unfortunately, neither the IRS nor the courts have offered a reliable definition of "substantial" lobbying activities, making this option a riskier choice. Some have assumed that if you spend less than 5% of your operating budget on lobbying activities, it can not be substantial. We are conducting a more detailed audit of our lobbying expenses and exploring possible alternatives regarding the two options. After further investigation the Board will make a prudent decision regarding the option of choice and your Society Director will keep you informed.

On behalf of the Board, I want to thank all of you who took the time to share your views on this subject with us.

President Bill Marcuson
ASCE National

ATTENTION – Regulation Changes for APELSCIDLA Seals

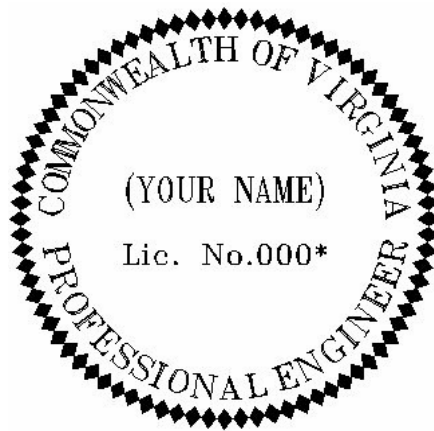

Effective February 1, 2007, the APELSCIDLA Board amended its regulations to include "Lic." or "Cert." (as appropriate) on the seals. The purpose of the change is to assist in easily distinguishing among plans submitted by licensed versus certified professionals, and therefore ascertaining whether the correct design professional is submitting the plans for approval.

For the large number of professionals who generate their seals from software, the impact should be negligible as the image of the seal need only be modified to include "Lic." or "Cert." (as appropriate). Individuals may still elect to seal using a rubber stamp or embossed seal, and the Board changes the seal image requirements infrequently.

Below is the language of the Board's regulations regarding the seal image (effective February 1, 2007):

18 VAC 10-20-760. Use of seal.

The seal shall conform in detail and size to the design illustrated below and shall be two inches in diameter. The designs below may not be shown to scale:

* - The number referred to is the last six-digit number as shown on the license or certificate. The number is permanent. Leading zeros contained in the six-digit number may be omitted from the seal.

APELSCIDLA Board Meeting Continuing Education Requirements

On Thursday, June 14, 2007, the APELSCIDLA will be holding a Board Meeting. One item on the agenda is to discuss the Draft Proposed Continuing Education Language. After the Board accepts the Draft Proposed Wording, the Public Comment period will commence for 60 days. There will be a website for interested parties to provide public comments on the proposed draft wording. Stay tuned for further details as they develop.
